1 pr Slippers, leather
2 pr Shoe Trees
1 pr Slippers, shower

NOTE: For this trip to Issue Point No. 8 entrance will be by south door, South Gymnasium, turning right to South Boxing Room with exit by the center door. Issue will be checked in center hallway before leaving gymnasium. Tactical Officers will be present with their companies.

2. General.

a. At the first opportunity after each drawing from an Issue Point, squad leaders will insure that each New Cadet checks that he has received all items for which he was charged. Squad Leaders will explain to each New Cadet in their respective squads that charges for all of the above items drawn from the Cadet Store will automatically be made against each New Cadet's account. It will be further explained to the New Cadet that he signs and is responsible for all other items of Government property issued to him from the S-4 Supply Room, including his bedding. Squad leaders will report all shortages in their squad to Supply Sergeant, who will make the necessary adjustments with Sales Store Supervisor (first floor Cadet Store) by 1500 Tuesday, 12 July 1960.

b. Squad Leaders will insure that each New Cadet does not mark sized items of clothing issued to him by the Cadet Store and Cadet Supply Room until he is certain the items fit properly. Marked items cannot be turned in for exchange to the Cadet Store.

c. New Cadets who are issued items of clothing which do not fit properly and who have not had an opportunity to exchange such items will proceed individually to the issue points of original issue at first opportunity, bringing with them the articles for exchange.

d. Cadet Battalion S-4 will forward drill rolls of New Cadet Chest measurements to S-1, New Cadet Barracks, by 0800, 11 July.

3. Certain members of the New Cadet Detail will be directed by this Headquarters to assist at the Clothing Issue Points in the fitting of articles of clothing. See Admistrative Memorandum No. 6, this Headquarters, cs.
