Camp Buckner without the approval of the Commanding Officer, Camp Buckner.

(b) Providing they have no conflicting duties First Classmen may sign out to visit Highland Falls in accordance with the following schedule:

Wednesday	-	1530-1800 Hours
Saturday and Sunday	-	1300-1800 Hours
Legal Holidays	-	1300-1800 Hours

(2) Evening Limits. Evening limits will be as currently prescribed by Regulations, USCC.

c. MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS OF DISCIPLINE.

(1) Members of the First Class will be encouraged to exercise their initiative and to develop their self-discipline. Minor slippages in the disciplinary system will be handled by counseling rather than by formal reports. However if a First Classman demonstrates that he is not carrying out his general or specific duties in a positive manner he will be reported and given rather severe punishment. Examples of such reports and awards are:

(a) Primary duty, poor performance of, or inattention to - 10 Demerits.

(b) Poor judgement - 5 Demerits to Regimental Board.

(c) Continued minor violations - 10 Demerits.

(d) Deliberate violation of major regulations - 10 Demerits to Commandant's Board.

(e) Reflecting discredit on the Corps or on the First Class - Commandant's Board.

(2) Commandant's Board awards will include ordinary confinements rather than tours, and if reduction in grade is warranted, cadet officers, Master Sergeants and Sergeants First Class, may be reducted to the grade of Cadet Sergeant rather than to Private.

(3) The punishment for violation of drinking regulations, absences without leave or other serious offenses will be normal Class I punishments to include reduction to private, punishment tours, and special confinement.

(4) First Class delinquency records will be kept separately and will not be posted on the Bulletin Board. Tactical Officers will keep an informal list of minor delinquencies for use in counseling or, if necessary, for reporting a cadet for continued violations.

d. DRINKING AUTHORIZATION.

First Classmen are permitted to consume alcoholic beverages under the following precise conditions and locations:

(1) At quarters of male commissioned officers, athletic coaches, and male civilian instructors, on duty with or employed by agencies of the Military Academy.

(2) At the specific invitation of the officer or civilian coach or instructor, whose quarters the cadet is visiting.

(3) When the officer, coach or instructor, whose quarters the cadet is visiting is at home.

(4) At the West Point Army Mess on Monday through Friday evenings as a guest of a male commissioned officer, or male civilian instructor stationed at West Point at the specific invitation of that officer or instructor, and in the presence of that officer or instructor.

4. Reveille Formation: All members of the detail are required to be present for reveille formations.
