e. Station #5: Physical Examination
In Charge: Surgeon, Station Hospital
Personnel: Medical Officers and enlisted assistants
Place: Stage of Army Theatre
Procedure: Candidates will turn in immunization record to enlisted attendant, then proceed to undress completely at the chairs provided, place his clothes in the barracks bag, except the athletic supporter, hand carry the items and report to a designated Medical Officer for a physical examination, after which he will put on the athletic supporter. He will then proceed to Station #6, carrying his barracks bag containing his clothing with him.

f. Station #6: Height, Weight, and Posture Photographs
In Charge: Director of Physical Education
Personnel: Instructors from the Office of Physical Education; Field musicians, and photographers
Place: East of Station #5, Army Theatre
Procedure: Each candidate will receive a numbered identification card upon reporting to this station. The same identification number will be entered upon his Admission Card, and, in addition, his name and identification number will be entered on an original and duplicate Posture Record. Posture Records will be retained by clerical personnel. He will then be directed to the stadiometer where his height will be measured and recorded upon his Admission Card. He will then move to one of three (3) camera stations where his posture photograph will be taken and his numbered identification card turned in. Each candidate will then dress at the chairs provided and report to the Baggage Area to pick up personal baggage. Each candidate will then be required to keep his barracks bag containing his clothing with him at all times except while he is actually being measured, weighed in or photographed at Station #6.

g. Station #7: Assignment to Companies
In Charge: Personnel Officer, USCC
Personnel: Clerical Personnel, Headquarters, USCC
Place: Central Gymnasium
Procedure: Each candidate will be directed alphabetically to one of three desks where clerks will take from him the Admission Card which verifies that he has been processed through all previous stations. Each candidate will then receive an assignment card on which will be indicated the numbered company to which he has been assigned by height. The candidate will verify the correctness of his name as it appears on the assignment card, and should there be any error in his recorded name it will be corrected by a clerk at this station. The candidate will then sign a duplicate card which will include his company assignment and the unmarried certificate. The candidate will retain the original assignment card; the clerk will keep the duplicate. The clerk at this time will request the candidate to remove all insignia of commissioned rank if in a uniform of the Armed Forces. The candidate will receive a name card and name card holder. He then proceeds to Station #8 in the East Gymnasium on the Second Floor of the Gymnasium.

h. Station #8: Escort to Company
In Charge: S-1, 1st Regiment, USCC
Personnel: Field Musicians
Place: East Gymnasium, 2nd Floor of Gymnasium
Procedure: Each candidate will be directed to a company-designated area in the bleachers provided in accordance with the numbered company to which he was assigned at Station #7. Upon completion of processing at this station, he will be escorted by an enlisted guide along Brewerton Road to the Orderly Room of the assigned company. Upon arrival at this point, a member of the Cadet Detail will verify the candidate's assignment card to insure that he is in the correct company and then accept the candidate into his custody. The reception of the candidate has been completed.
