

GOAT-ENGINEER GAME

Today's game is the 43rd annual clash of the football teams that represent the top third of the Second Class (Hives or Engineers) and the bottom third (affectionately known as the Goats). The teams practice in their spare time, often on weekends, at highly guarded practice fields. The teams are organized and plays are formulated under the guidance of officers from the various departments and organizations on Post. Equipment is furnished through the Intramural Storeroom by the Office of Physical Education. By tradition, AS THE GOATS GO AGAINST THE HIVES, SO GOES ARMY AGAINST NAVY!

SLAUGHTER NAVY!!!

TEAM SONG AND CHEERS

We're the Engineers, the darling dears
 Of every "P" in sight,
 We bone our files in classes
 And we study hard each night.
 Today we're going to show the world
 That engineering drive;
 We will grab the specs around their necks
 And skin the goats alive!

Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe
 Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe
 Give 'em the axe, Give 'em the axe, Give 'em the axe
 (Cheerleaders) WHEN? (Crowd) NOW!

Sliderule Slipstick cosine sine
 3 point 1-4-1-5-9
 Hives! Hives! Hives!

2 tenths, 4 tenths, 6 tenths a unit,
 No goat team can stop us from doin' it!

TEAM SONG AND CHEERS

SLIPSTICK RHAPSODY
 (to the tune of Notre Dame song)

We are the goats and happy to be
 Part of that famous fraternity;
 Holding up that long gray line
 Although it's usually from behind.
 We've got a team that's loaded with spec,
 Bring on the hives and we'll give 'em heck!
 Slip-stick pushin' Engineers
 Are playin' with a loaded deck.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star;
 F is equal to M R.
 Goats! Goats! Goats!

GO GO GO GO Go Goats, where? Where?
 GO GOATS GO We want a touchdown
 Over THERE!

NOTE: Players' numbers are probably incorrect. We are not infallible!
