

FD42 down to the wire, closing this week

Thanks to the generosity of 1,250 WP-ORG members, we've received 94% of the $92,344 needed to fund WP-ORG operations for the next six months. Thank you to all who have contributed!

Now we're only $5,000 short of FD42 goal. This chart shows progress of FD42 through Saturday, compared to FD38-FD41:

FD42 receipts are well ahead of recent average, and it looks to be our shortest fund drive in years. You can look it up:

If you value WP-ORG services, but haven't yet donated, we need your help to close out FD42. If you intend to make a donation, please make it now.

You can donate to FD42 by credit card, check, or PayPal:

Your donations make WP-ORG services possible.

Thank you,

Bill MacLean
