

USMA New Cadet Barracks, Industry Day

The New Cadet Barracks is currently budgeted in Fiscal Year 2013 at a Programmed Amount of $192M. The project will provide barracks space for 650 Cadets. The project is critical to the United States Military Academy (USMA) to eliminate overcrowding. The Academy's goal is to occupy the New Cadet Barracks as early as possible, preferably moving Cadets into the new facility at the beginning of an academic year.

Read More...