It was a dead heat! a total of 28 votes - each location getting 14.

Since we have already agreed with the Navy to be at Jones Valley for the Army - Navy Game, we will muster at the Buffalo Wild Wings at Madison Mall this Saturday afternoon. The kick off is at 1430 hours ----Which is the same time as the Alabama - LSU game. This means the facility will be crowded. I am requesting that those who voted for the Madison location, please try and arrive early enough to lock in a location - It looks like we need room for at least 28 folks - the number voting.

Beat Air Force!
