

Background

Major Curtis Feistner

- Graduated West Point in 1990
- Flight Platoon Leader, XO and Flight Operations Officer
 - » B Company, 214th Aviation Regiment, NAS Barbers Point, HI
- Joined 160th in June 1995
 - » Special Operations Aviation Qualification Course
 - » MH-47E Qualification Course
- Platoon Leader, A/2-160th
- HHC Commander, 2-160th
- Assistant Battalion S-3, 2-160th
- Assumed Command of E/160th in August 2000
- Organized, equipped, trained and deployed the company in 2001
- Led numerous deployments in Pacific Theater
- Deployed to Philippines on 21 Jan 02

Night Stalkers Don't Quit

Background

Major Curtis Feistner

- Company Commander
 - » Basic Mission Qualified Pilot-in-Command
 - » Flight Hours
 - Total – 1,680
 - NVG - 658
 - Chinook – 1,412
 - MH-47E – 953
 - Imminent Danger – 43

Major Curtis Feistner

“Major Feistner was our Commander and a leader in every aspect of Echo Company. When we had a P.T. test, he would say, ‘I will lead the way.’ His communication skills were amazing. He knew how to get the Company’s point across to anybody he encountered. He stood up for his soldiers many times and was never afraid to fight for what was right for the company, his men and our mission.”