Dear General Bradshaw:

On behalf of the Corps of Cadets and the United States Military Academy, I want to thank you for the Class of 1958 gift of a Perpetual Endowment Fund. We are truly honored by your loyalty and affection for the Academy.

The generosity exhibited by the Class of 1958 is appreciated as your gifts have continually enabled us to enhance the cadet experience. The Class of 1958 Perpetual Endowment Fund will provide exceptional opportunities for cadets and strengthen the traditional standards of excellence here at the Military Academy. Your gift will play an important role in supporting worthy endeavors not possible without private support.

With best wishes from West Point.

Sincerely,
